3-State Floods Drive Thousands
From Homes

Aid Rushed to Colorado, Texas,
Oklahoma Areas

CHICAGO (AP)—Dust Bowl flood crests drove close to 5,000 persons from their homes in a three-state area today, but broke the back of a five-year drought.

The Army, the Red Cross, and state officials rushed emergency supplies of blankets, food, water, and anti-typhoid vaccine to stricken areas in Colorado, Oklahoma, and Texas.

Southeast Colorado, where a major dust storm raged just one month ago, was awash.

The rain-swollen Purgatoire River drove hundreds of persons from their homes at Trinidad, Colo., and washed away six homes and a church.

Seventy miles to the northeast, the Arkansas River washed over its banks at La Junta, Colo. It forced 1,800 persons from their homes and they spent the night in an abandoned World War II housing project.

States of emergency were declared in both Trinidad and La Junta and it was estimated that the Purgatoire and Arkansas floods had made 4,000 persons homeless.

More flood waters drove 750 Oklahoma, and the Red Cross fed more than 100 persons in rain-sodden Eastland, Tex., Thursday night.

The flood waters came rolling down after days of torrential rains in the three states.

The downpours had stopped in Colorado, but mountain runoffs from the Sangre de Cristo range of the Rockies threatened to spill five feet more of water into the Purgatoire in the next few days.

Flood threats also continued in Texas, Oklahoma, and Kansas, although they appeared to be easing.
The band of heavy rains had moved southeastward by early today and spread showers and thunderstorms from the Texas Panhandle, southern Kansas, and Oklahoma through Arkansas and Louisiana.

Emergency supplies were pouring into the stricken areas today.

Five Army cargo vans containing 1,000 blankets and 500 cots and mattresses rolled into Trinidad from Ft. Carson, Colo., 128 miles away. Another truck convoy brought emergency power units, a water pump and hose, radio equipment, and water purification units.
A lightning bolt hit 30 teenage boys at a Kingsville, Tex., school, killing 4 of them. And at Manzanola, Colo., a 55-year-old woman drowned while measuring the flow of water in an irrigation ditch.

But at Lufkin, Tex., 110 shoppers escaped injury when more than 3 1/2 inches of rain in 40 minutes caved in the roof of a super market. The market manager heard the ceiling crack and herded the customers to safety in the nick of time.

Elsewhere in the country, temperatures slumped in the North and shot past the 100-degree mark in southern California.

Ringgold Church
Engages in 'Lord's Cattle Project'

The Ringgold Presbyterian church, near Shawneetown and located in the Egyptian Larger Parish, is engaged in a "Lord's Cattle Project," similar somewhat to the now well-known "Lord's Acre project."

Fifteen head of Hereford steers, weighing an average of 643 pounds each, were purchased from the Evansville Producers Commission association early in February of this year and delivered to the Harry Gross farm near the church.

There the cattle were branded with a 6x4 inch cross and then delivered to fifteen farmers who had agreed to care for one each.
These farmers have been feeding and caring for the cattle along with their own and will continue to do so until the animals are ready for marketing.

Proceeds from the project will be used to aid in one of the church's improvement programs.

This is one of the first such projects undertaken in this area although it has proved successful in other states. One church in Iowa which has had remarkable success with such a program is the Presbyterian church at Vail.
Pastor of that church is the Rev.
Frank Mease, who formerly served at Eldorado.

The Rev. Rowland L. Westervelt is pastor of the Ringgold church.
He also serves as pastor of the Shawneetown Presbyterian church.
Men of the area who are participating in the project are H. H.
Barlow, Will Brinkley, Woody Brinkley, Allen Cremins, Harry Gross, Fred Harris, Joe Logsdon, James Mitchell, Kenneth Rich, Herman Richeson, Billy Smith, Millard Smith, Bill Talbot, Vince Usseltson and Charles Willis. Two other men are contributing cash and labor.

WHAT'S HE GOT TO LAUGH ABOUT?

THIS IS "ROGER", the Jaycees' hog, which will become ham, bacon, and ribs in someone's cold storage locker by Monday, yet doesn't seem too worried about the whole thing. "Roger" is on display on the southwest corner of the courthouse lawn, where the public is invited to try and guess his weight.
The person guessing closest to the exact weight of the porker will receive him, properly dressed and cut up, with four months free cold storage locker rent, through the courtesy of Gocard's Farm Market, Raleigh Packing Company, the Harrisburg Ice Company, and Robertson-Ghent Insurance Agency. The Jaycees hope to raise enough money from the stunt to pay the expenses of the Saline County entrant in the Miss Illinois contest, Miss Eugenia Gollhofer. The contest is next weekend at Quincy, and funds raised from contributions during the stunt, which ends tomorrow afternoon, will help pay Miss Gollhofer's expenses.

Legislature Increases Power of Illinois Department of Aeronautics

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—In the face of Gov. William G. Stratton's announced intention to abolish the Department of Aeronautics, the Illinois Legislature today sent him three bills increasing the department's power.

The bills, passed by the Senate Thursday, would provide tax relief for airports, require department approval for sale of airports, and give the department police power to control the movement of aircraft in a military emergency. The last-mentioned bill was re-passed after the governor vetoed another version.

Granite City
Girl National
Spelling Champ

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thirteen-year-old Sandra Sloss of Granite City, Ill., thought about nice things today than "crustaceology, immiscibility, abbacy and mnemone."

She has $500 in her pocket plus $100 for a week-end trip to New York, after spelling those words correctly and winning the longest National Spelling Bee in the 28-year history of the contest.

She also was scheduled to make an appearance on a nationwide television program this morning and may go on a special tour of the White House later. She will go on another nationwide TV show Sunday night at New York before going back home to Granite City.

"Sandy" outlasted 61 other bright youngsters in a tonguetwisting contest Thursday that covered 541 words—"the longest list since they wrote the Bible," according to contest director Charles Schneider of the Scripps-Howard newspapers.

Second prize of $300 cash went to 12-year-old Jean Copeland of Prescott, Ariz., and the third $100 cash, to Naomi Klein, 12, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The blue-eyed, sandy-haired winner, an eighth-grader at St. Joseph's school, said she would have to think about what to do with her prize money.

"I didn't expect to win," she said, "and I haven't even thought about what to do with the money."

It could go into a college fund.
Her mother said Sandy wants to go to college. But her interest is not in getting to be an even better speller. She wants to become a commercial artist.

Others among the 23 who stuck longest in the spelling bee were:
Linda Roubalik, 13, Wirt, Minn., 6th place. Failed on "smeragdine." She spelled it "smeragdine." Patricia Usseltson, 13, Shawnee-town, Ill., 7th. She gave "mermadon" for "mermidon."

Beatrice Cameron, 13, Madison, Wis., 17th. She missed "chiaroscuro" by putting an "a" for the final "o."
James L. Sherry, 13, Indianapolis, 23rd. Started "jeune" with a "j."

Three Hurt in Crash on Rt. 45

Three persons were injured yesterday afternoon in a two-car crash on Route 45 at the Hill Market crossing.

Injured were Guy Wilson, 65, of Harrisburg Route 3, who suffered a bad shoulder injury, a broken bone in the face and other injuries; Richard Lee Brown, 17, Harrisburg, who suffered chest injuries; and Gene Goolsby, 16, who suffered injuries around the eyes.

State Policeman Guthrie Alexander said the crash occurred about 4:30 p. m. He said his investigation showed that Brown was driving south on Route 45 with Goolsby in the car with him and that Wilson pulled out onto Route 45 from Barnett street.

Wilson was thrown from his automobile onto the pavement.
All three were taken to Lightner hospital.

Wilson is employed by the Pyramid laundry.

ern Illinois annual conference of the Methodist church opened yesterday in Benton with Bishop odist Laymen. Participating in the layman program as a member of a panel discussion group was J. O.

Discuss School
Here to Train
Practical Nurses

State Board Members
Attend Meeting
At Lightner Hospital

Problems connected with the establishment of a proposed area school here to train girls and women to become licensed practical nurses were discussed by a group of 15 at the Lightner hospital yesterday afternoon.

Present from the State Board for Vocational Education at Springfield were L. L. Wingo and M. A.
Wittevrongel, who explained the state set-up for establishment of approved training schools. There are no such training centers in southern Illinois at present and the need is great, they pointed out.

Mr. Wingo and Mr. Wittevrongel spoke to hospital administrators, nurses, school administrators and civic club heads from Saline and Hardin counties.

They pointed out that local schools must provide classrooms, laboratories, equipment and necessary supplies and instructional materials, and the H. T. H. S. Board of Education will discuss the matter to determine if it will be feasible for the local institution to sponsor the school.

Training Required

The training calls for 16 weeks of classroom work in school and 31 weeks in co-operating hospitals under a coordinator paid specifically for supervising the training. Part of the classroom activity would be under a home economics instructor.

The state of Illinois pays for part of the salary expenditures.

Ages of applicants for the training may range from 17 to 55. The cost to the student would be approximately $100, with $40 for laboratory fees and $60 for uniforms, white shoes and stockings, books and miscellaneous items. The students would receive a stipend during their clinical experience at the hospital.

The representatives from Springfield pointed out that a state law requires that practical nurses now must receive their training in approved schools before they can take their examination for a license.

Murphysboro Doctor
And Son Injured in Explosion at Motel

TOLONO, Ill. (AP)—A Murphysboro, Ill., physician and his son were injured today in an explosion at a motel here.

Dr. J. P. Winn and his son, John, were taken to Burnham City hospital at Champaign where the doctor was reported in critical condition and his son in fair condition.
Cause of the explosion was not immediately determined, but officials speculated the television set in the motel room may have touched off some gas.

Winn and his son were here to attend the state high school track meet at Champaign, eight miles away, this weekend.

Drown Near Centralia

CENTRALIA, (AP)—A mother of four children drowned Thursday when she tried to rescue one of her children, who also drowned, near Centralia.

Mrs. Lucy Mae McBride, 29, Cardwell, Mo., and her 6-year-old daughter, Connie, drowned in Raccoon Creek east of Centralia. State police said the girl was wading in the creek and stepped into deep water and Mrs. McBride tried to rescue her.

Yale Senior, 22, Wins Court Fight To Reject Inheritance of $400,000

NEW YORK (AP)—A 22-year-old Yale senior won a court fight Thursday for the legal right to reject a $400,000 inheritance "for moral and political reasons."

Surrogate William T. Collins ruled that "while it might appear to others as folly," there was no legal reason why Eugene F. Suter Jr. should have to accept the principal and interest of a $350,000 trust fund left him by his father, a machinery manufacturer.

The fund brought an accumulated income of $36,036 in 1953, six months after young Suter became 21. The elder Suter died in 1943.

Young Suter immediately gave the income away, including $5,000 to the Socialist Party. He is a member of the Young Peoples Socialist League.

Trustees of the will fought young Suter's action as did attorneys for his relatives. They argued that a will is inalienable.

Suter's petition said "I have two hands and a head of my own." He

Complaint Seeks Royalty Interest On Oil Well North of Muddy

A complaint in chancery which seeks the royalty interest on premises where an oil well north of Muddy that is now flowing was filed today in circuit court.

Plaintiffs are the heirs of the late John Stefani, who died in 1946.
There are 14 of them. Defendants are Earl E. May and Hazel May, and Donald Foote. Mr. and Mrs.
May bought the land in question in 1953. Foote, from Evansville, held the permit for the drilling of the Raleigh township well.

The plaintiffs and the fraction of the royalty the complaint contends they hold in the oil and gas rights under the 15 acres of ground are:

Louise and Robert Bertino, one-sixth; Tirso and Vera Stefani, one-sixth; Tresa and David Drovetti, one-sixth; Mary and Ignazio Sir-ach, one-sixth; John S. and Elsie Stefani, one-eighth; Betty Jean Stefani, one-eighth; Joan and Gilbert Stefani, one-eighth; and Elizabeth Stefani, one-eighth.

The complaint to cancel deed was filed for the plaintiffs by Atty-Arlie O. Boswell Sr. The complaint says that John Stefani, who died nine years ago, and Virgilio Molin-arolo became owners of 30 acres of ground in the northeast corner of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of Section 34, Raleigh township, by warranty deed from W. H. and Lucy Moore on Dec. 11, 1909.

Charge Misrepresentation

On May 10, 1910, the complaint says, Molinarolo conveyed to John Stefani the surface of 15 acres off

Junior High Eighth
Grade Group on Tour
To Mammoth Cave, Ky.

The last of a series of eighth grade tours by Junior high school students was held yesterday and today to Mammoth Cave, Ky.

Approximately 60 students, accompanied by four teachers, Mrs.
Adeline Davis, Miss Barbara Thompson, Louie Beltz and J. A.
Dillon, spent the night in lodgings at the park.

All eighth grade pupils have had an opportunity to go on one of these tours, the place being determined by the amount of magazine subscriptions sold. The boys and girls in this particular group sold above $13 each.

The Junior high picnic will be held Tuesday, May 24, the place indefinite depending on the weather.

the north side of the area, with coal rights reserved. When Stefani died, it says, the plaintiffs inherited the surface and a half interest in the mineral rights except for coal on the 30 acres.

Then, it says, the 15 acres off the north side was sold to the Mays without oil and gas rights, but that in November of 1953, a couple of months after the sale, the plaintiffs, except for Virginia Stefani, signed a purported quit claim deed for the purposes of correcting a misdescription in a former deed, but that they signed away oil interests through misrepresentation.

The complaint asks that the November 1953 quit claim deed be ruled null and void, that there be a reconveyance of the premises described in the November deed except as to the surface and coal, that the Mays account to the plaintiffs for any royalties or other money received, that Foote be made to cancel his lease with the defendant, and that an injunction be issued to prohibit the payment of any royalties until after disposition of the case.

Police Arrest
Suitor with Kidnaped Girl

DETROIT (AP)—A love-sick suitor who kidnaped his former girlfriend when she spurned his advances was arrested early today in a motel where he forced the shapely brunette to spend the night at gunpoint.

Detectives said the girl, 21-year-old June Dallen, had been severely beaten but had not been raped.
Her burly abductor and assailant, Murray Sinuk, 28, surrendered meekly when police broke down the door of the motel.

The 220-pound salesman still was holding a cocked 45-caliber revolver when police burst into the room.
"I'm glad it turned out the way it did," Sinuk's pretty, 110-pound victim said. "Now, at least, he won't keep pestering me."

The bruised and battered girl said she lost her shoe while struggling with Sinuk outside her apartment Thursday night. She said he "roughed me up" when she fended him off. She was covered with black and blue marks and bore scratch marks on her arms and neck.

"I had several chances to get away," she said. "But I figured the chances were too great and he'd just come after me again anyway. He kept that gun pointed at me all the time."

The girl said Sinuk had slapped her repeatedly as he dragged her down an alley behind her apartment building to his car.

"He said he wanted me to love him," she said. "But he just kept making it worse. I don't know how he expected me to love him when he treated me like that."

Miss Dallen said she met Sinuk last year when he was working for her father. She said she had several dates with Sinuk but broke off relations with him when he insisted on marrying her. She said he threatened several times to kill himself if she didn't go out with him.

Supreme Court
Says 1943 Act
Is Illegal

Ruling Involves Suit by Employes
Of Chicago Firm

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—The Illinois
Supreme Court today ruled Illinois employers do not have to pay employees for time off to vote.

The high court held a 1943 law for "pay while voting" is unconstitutional insofar as it requires payment for hours not actually worked it deprives employers of property without due process of law.

The case involved suit by 49 employees of the Benjamin Manufacturing Co. Inc., Chicago. The employees, under the law requiring employers to grant two hours off during poll hours on election days, voted in the Nov. 4, 1952, general election.

The court upheld that part of the statute requiring employers to grant the two hours to vote upon advance request by employees.

But the Supreme Court said time "has served only to strengthen the logic of the Illinois Supreme Court opinion of 1923 holding that the Legislature cannot require pay for voting time."

Employes Sue for Wages Discussing the facts of the case, the high court noted the Benjamin electric company worked from 8
a. m. to 4:30 p. m. at an hourly rate and workers could have voted from 6-8 a. m. before going to work.
Instead they asked for time off to vote during working hours and it was granted. The firm refused to pay for hours not actually worked.
The employees then sued for the deducted wages.

The Supreme Court held the existing election statute of 1943 was identical in pertinent points to the 1908 law in effect in 1923.

The high court did not rule out "private agreement" between employer and employee for time taken to vote. "If it is still deemed a necessary incentive that employees be paid for voting, we think it is a matter to be settled by private agreement rather than by penal legislation which burdens and benefits but a few of those in the community who are affected," the court said.

The State Supreme Court opinion, written by Justice Joseph E.
Daley of Peoria, reverses the Cook County Circuit Court opinion which upheld the "pay while voting" provision.

WHITE COUNTY CIRCUIT

Supreme Court today:

Affirmed the Bureau County court validation of 1952 taxes for Drainage District 4. Manlius Township, Bureau County.

Affirmed an award of 259 weeks at $25.50 plus one week at $17 for Frank Jones, 46, Fairmount, who suffered a coronary occlusion in the La Cade steel plant at Alton July 24, 1951 while throwing materials in a steel furnace.

Upheld the White County Circuit Court finding that Robert Green was not the equitable owner of a Carmi business property and which granted the possession of the property to Lynn R. Stein and wife.

House to Probe Finances of New Harmony Bridge

WASHINGTON (AP)—House leaders today scheduled for debate next week a proposal by Rep. Winfield K. Denton (D-Ind.) to investigate the "financial position" of the White County, Ill., Bridge Commission.

Denton says the commission, set up by act of Congress in 1941 to buy and operate a toll bridge across the Wabash near New Harmony, Ind., has operated without any check either by state, local or federal agency.

Under his resolution, which was approved late Thursday by the Rules Committee, a special House committee would study the commission's finances with an eye especially to when motorists can expect the bridge to be freed of tolls.

Official Forced To Open Bank While Family Held Hostages

JACKSONVILLE, Ala. (AP)—Two armed bandits robbed the First National Bank of $80,000 today, forcing the vice president to open the bank while two confederates held the officer's wife and two small children hostage at their home.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation said the carefully planned robbery was staged after the gunmen went to the home of Jesse N.
Wood, assistant vice president and cashier of the bank, and forced him to accompany two of them to the bank before it opened this morning.

Fish Fry and Picnic Dinner Held at Cave-in-Rock

A family fish fry was held at Cave-in-Rock park recently and a delicious meal was enjoyed at the noon hour.

The afternoon was spent in motor boat riding.

Present were Airman Glendell C. Butterworth, Whidbey Island, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Butterworth, Fireman Luther M. Davis, Bremerton, Wash., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Davis, Harrisburg RFD 3, who were home on short leaves from the U. S. Navy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hogg, Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Hogg and family of St. Charles, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butterworth and son, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hogg, Bill Butterworth, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Butterworth and daughter, Dorrie.

Dr. Hugo Bair, noted eye specialist at the Mayo clinic, Rochester, Minn., was in Harrisburg last week, visiting his uncle and aunt by whom he was reared, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Bair. He and Mrs. Bair went to Cairo, Carmi and St. Petersburg, Ind., to visit friends. Subsequent to his visit Mr. and Mrs. Bair had with them for a few days another nephew, Edward Johnson, recovering from Guillain Barre, a very rare disease, which he contracted while building airports in Africa. He has found the sunny climate of Abilene, Texas, beneficial and has improved remarkably there after being in a hospital, Mt. Alto at Washington, D. C., for many months. Mr. Johnson also lived at the Bair home in his early youth.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fowler have returned from a visit with Mrs. Fowler's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Griffith, and family of Detroit, Mich. They also visited friends of Mrs. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Joe White, also of Detroit, while there they enjoyed fishing in the lake and afterwards a catfish supper. Mrs. Fowler spent Mother's Day in Michigan with her children.

Mrs. Carrie Stricklin was called to Benton by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Esther Racine, who is in the Franklin county hospital.

Housewives Read Register Classified Ads, Survey Reveals

Mr. and Mrs. John (Toby) Small, Dorris Heights, are preparing to move to Michigan by June 1. They advertised their home in a six line ad which ran two days and had numerous prospective buyers, five of whom were in a race together to finance the purchase when Lloyd Banks bought the place.

Ross Boulden who lost his wallet, containing important personal papers, put an ad in Thursday's Register which recovered the lost articles. Shirley Price, 16, living in the same neighborhood, found and returned his wallet.

In a recent survey made among housewives of Harrisburg, information gathered revealed that they were practically 100 per cent in reading Register classifieds. One remarked I read them every day from "I will not be responsible to Cline Wade's typewriter repair ad."

Arlene Pemberton Honored With Surprise Birthday Party and Wiener Roast

A surprise birthday party was held Tuesday, May 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Pemberton in honor of their daughter, Arlene.

The party was planned by Mary Belle Perry and Barbara Patterson with Miss Trula Pemberton being the hostess.

The highlight of the evening was the opening of gifts after which games were played on the lawn.

Later in the evening a wiener roast was enjoyed. A prayer of thanks was offered by Bert Tate, a retired Methodist minister of Galatia.

Eisenhower Receives Citation As Church Layman

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower received a citation from churchmen today for outstanding service as a church layman.

Presenting the citation at the White House were:

J. Clinton Hawkins, St. Louis, national president of the United Churchmen; Edwin W. Parsons, New York, general director of the Churchmen; Dr. Roy G. Ross, general secretary of the National Council of the Churches of Christ, and Dr. Earl Frederick Adams, Washington, secretary of the National Council.

After receiving the citation, the President called a cabinet meeting. He planned to leave after the cabinet session for his Gettysburg, Pa., farm where he and Mrs. Eisenhower will spend the weekend.

The President received a new gift for his farm Thursday night when Washington's newspaper women presented him with an eight-month-old heifer.

Mrs. Elizabeth Carpenter, president of the Women's National Press Club, made the presentation in the presidential room of the Statler Hotel as the finale to the club's annual dinner and stunt party.

Twining Hints U. S. May Have to Expand Air Power

LOS ANGELES — Gen. Nathan F. Twining strongly hinted today that new Soviet air power gains may force the United States to build a bigger Air Force to maintain its lead over Russia.

The air chief of staff also scorned the idea of a nuclear "stalemate" with Russia. And he said there is not yet any "reliable way" to bring about disarmament.

In a speech prepared for the Los Angeles Rotary Club in connection with Armed Forces Day celebrations, Twining outlined recent Russian aviation advances in more detail than previously has been done officially.

He said this country must "maintain our own forces to insure the lead over the Soviets that we have." He said the 137-wing program, scheduled to be reached in mid-1957, "was a sound one under the conditions that existed when it was made. I am confident we are ahead today."

"However, these new Soviet advances in air power must be taken into account in the continuous review of our air strength," Twining said. "Our production base for additional effort is available and our output can be stepped up if required."

Rule State Athletic Commission Can Not Bar Women Wrestlers

SPRINGFIELD (UP) — The Illinois Supreme Court today ruled women may wrestle professionally until a law is enacted expressly forbidding it.

An opinion written by Justice Ray L. Klingbiel of East Moline said the Illinois Athletic Commission did not have statutory power to refuse to grant a wrestling license to Rose Hesselstine, also known as Rose Roman.

A bill is pending now in the General Assembly to give the Athletic Commission that power.

Vaccine Program May Be Political Issue Next Year

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—The possibility that the administration's handling of Salk polio vaccine could become a real and blazing political issue in next year's presidential campaign is something politicians are just beginning to sense.

There have been some rumblings in Congress topped off by the angry demand of Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore) that Secretary O'Vea Culp Hobby be removed from the cabinet. President Eisenhower was angry when he rejected Morse's idea in Wednesday's news conference. He told the reporters that Mrs. Hobby was an uncommonly capable woman with an outstanding record of business, government and military administration.

More To Come
But the discussion will not end there. There was a hint of more to come in the carefully chosen and brief comment by Adlai E. Stevenson when he returned Wednesday to Chicago from his African tour. He was asked for comment on the administration's handling of the vaccine program.

"I was astounded to hear that they (the administration) knew all about it and had no preparations for it," Stevenson replied and refused further comment. The implication of Stevenson's remark is a serious charge that the administration fumbled badly. But his criticism was indirect, implied, only.

The brevity of Stevenson's statement is sufficient evidence that the Democratic man of the year in 1952 and, perhaps 1956, is not yet sure in his own mind. He is not sure he could avoid a backfire if he made a firm political issue of the handling of the Salk vaccine. The health of children is an anxious thing. Stevenson is a more cautious man than Morse, by large measure.

Parents' Ultimate Attitude
What politicians of both parties will want to see is the ultimate attitude of parents toward a monumental effort, which so far has had its ups and downs, to curb the disease which prays so particularly on little children. The election and the presidential campaign are a long way off, mostly beyond the 1956 polio season. The administration's handling of the program will be in good perspective by then, the effectiveness of the over-all effort will have been put to severe although not complete test. The minds of mothers and dads will have arrived at whatever their conclusions are to be.

It would not be fair to say that anyone, Democrat or not, would welcome the vaccine program as a political issue because it would not become such unless it developed serious faults. But, if the faults do develop and the parents so find, the political issue of the Salk polio vaccine program could be deadly to Mr. Eisenhower and his party.

Chicago Business Group Protests City Sales Tax Plan

SPRINGFIELD (UP)—Chicago businessmen who visited Gov. William G. Stratton Thursday reported Stratton assured them he will seek "some other way" than a city sales tax to raise needed city revenues.

The delegation of Windy City merchants and other businessmen talked with Stratton two hours Thursday, protesting the "agreement" with Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley to permit Illinois cities to levy a 1-2-cent sales tax without referendum.

Gordon Metcalf, member of the board of Chicago Retail Merchants Assn., said Stratton agreed to talk

Coed Named Most Beautiful Bride; To Wed Stepbrother

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—A 21-year-old University of California coed who will marry her 22-year-old stepbrother next month has been chosen "America's most beautiful bride."

Dayna Hutchins won the title in a national contest sponsored by American Airlines, General Electric Corp., Macy's stores in the San Francisco Bay area, a magazine and a television show.

to Daley again and "try to come up with some other plan."

The merchants asked Stratton to levy a full 1-cent increase in the state sales tax and turn over a 1-2-cent to cities "on the basis of need."

Baptist Convention Asked to Oppose Universal Training

MIAMI, Fla. (UP)—The Southern Baptist Convention was asked today to oppose universal military training.

"America does not need and our people do not want any military plan that will fasten upon us a permanent system of military conscription in time of peace," said A. C. Miller, executive secretary of the convention's Christian life commission.

On foreign policy, Miller reported "the preaching of the gospel among all peoples and teaching them the meaning of its message as revealed to us through Christ" is the only way to finally attain worldwide peace.

Mental Health Group Criticizes Welfare Budget

CHICAGO (UP)—The Illinois Society for Mental Health today criticized the 1955-57 state welfare budget as inadequate and said care of the mentally ill may suffer as a result.

Kenneth A. Rouse, society president, said in a statement that the budget before the Legislature fails to provide for the expected increased patient load of 750 persons per year.

Rouse said the State Public Welfare Department asked for 141 million dollars for the next two years, but the appropriations bill would provide only 119 million.

He said the department now spends $2.55 per patient per day and wanted enough to provide $3.30. Instead, Rouse said, "it will be fortunate" if the department can maintain the $2.55 level under the proposed appropriation.

Volcano Activity Resumes on Hawaii

PAHOA, Hawaii (UP)—Volcanic activity resumed with new fury Thursday night on the eastern tip of the island of Hawaii.

A 25-foot-high wall of fiery lava flowed into the tiny Iwasaki sugar plantation camp, destroying several buildings and causing an estimated $6,000 damage.

The 300-foot-wide lava flow was being fed by a steady fountain from the Iliwa crater area which was reported shooting the blood red liquid as much as 100 feet skyward from a 75-foot cone which has been built up by sporadic activity during the last several weeks.

Miss Romack is Upset in British Women's Open

PORTRUSH, Northern Ireland (U.P.)—Barbara Romack, youthful U. S. women's amateur golf champion from Sacramento, Calif., offered no alibi today for her stunning upset loss to Scotland's 40-year-old Jessie Valentine in the British Women's Open tournament.

The 22-year-old Miss Romack, who saved her money for three years to play in England, had been favored to win the championship after relatively easy triumphs in earlier rounds.

However, Miss Romack pulled a tendon in her foot last week, causing her to limp around the Royal Portrush Club course in Thursday's 36-hole final, but she refused to use the injury as an alibi.

Mrs. Valentine, who won the title 18 years ago as Jessie Anderson, allowed her younger American opponent to win only four holes as she captured the title again.

Competition Opens for State Track Title; Five Records Threatened

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (U.P.)—Five records were threatened today as Illinois high school athletes opened two-day competition for state track championships.

The high school championship tennis and golf meets also got underway on the University of Illinois athletic fields.

Oak Park and New Trier were foremost favorites to break the record-tying three-year reign of La Grange as team champs.

But Blue Island, with two star individual performers and a crack half-mile relay team, was a dark horse, and Elmhurst, York, Chicago Tilden Tech and North Chicago all were worth watching.

The markers in danger were in the 180-yard low and 120-yard high hurdles; the mile and half-mile runs; and the half-mile relay.

May Ties Record
William May of Blue Island has racked up a 14.1 second season-best and a 14.4 district effort to with a thrilling exhibition of control golf against a stiff wind. The final score was 7 and 6.

Carrier Mills Beats Marion To Win District

Wildcats Will Play In Sectional Tourney Next Week

Leon Evans tossed a two-hitter for the Carrier Mills Wildcats, who sprang early at Marion yesterday afternoon to top the Harrisburg district high school baseball tournament. The score was 6 to 1.

Carrier Mills, by defeating the Marion subdistrict champ, won the right to play in the Du Quoin sectional tournament next week. They will play the winner of the Murphysboro district—probably Du Quoin—in the first round of play.

Coach Claude Shelton's boys defeated Shawneetown, Carmi and Marion in advancing to sectional play, and yesterday's win was the most decisive of all as they scored five runs in the first inning.

Here is how they scored them: Hill was safe on an error, Reid singled and Evans was safe on the catcher, which walked in Hill for the first run. Rollins then singled in Reid, Sweat doubled home Evans and Collins and Absher singled in Rollins.

Another run came in during the third when Evans singled, Collins sacrificed him to second and Sweat drove him home with a single. Marion's lone run came in the fourth when Herrin walked, advanced and was singled home by Feurer.

Evans went all the way for Carrier Mills with Collins behind the plate. Jim Anderson started on the hill for Marion but was knocked out during the big first inning and Barber finished. Jack Anderson caught.

The complete lineups:
Marion: Jack Anderson c, Hilliard if, Harris ss, Brown 3b, Mills rf, Murphy 2b, Herrin 1b, Feurer cf, Jim Anderson p and Barber p.
Carrier Mills: Hill if, Reid rf, Hooven 3b, Evans p, Collins c, Rollins 1b, Sweat cf, Absher 2b and Storms ss.

Hearn is First National L. Pitcher to Win Six Games As Giants Beat Braves, 3-2

By United Press

They say the mark of a champion is the ability to win the close ones—and that's exactly what Jim Hearn and the New York Giants are doing.

They did it again Thursday with a 3-2 victory over the Milwaukee Braves that gave the Giants a brilliant 7-1 record in games decided by one run. That mark is by far the best in the National league and is challenged in the majors only by the Cleveland Indians' 5-1 record.

It was the second one-run verdict of the season for Hearn, the team's No. 1 disappointment last year but the first N. L. pitcher to record his sixth victory this year. Hearn yielded 10 hits but walked only one batter and struck out six. He's beaten every team in the league except the Chicago Cubs.

Cardinals Second
The St. Louis Cardinals are second to the Giants in the N. L. as far as one-run decisions are concerned with a 7-4 record. The first-place Brooklyn Dodgers rank third with a 6-4 mark followed by the Cubs' 5-6, the Cincinnati Redlegs' 4-5, the Braves' 3-7, the Pittsburgh Pirates' 3-5 and the Philadelphia Phillies' 3-8.

In the American league, the Kansas City Athletics rank second to the Indians with a 6-2 record in one-run decisions and the Boston Red Sox are next with 6-4. The Chicago White Sox are 4-4, the New York Yankees 2-3, the Baltimore Orioles 4-6, the Detroit Tigers 3-6 and the Washington Senators 4-8.

The triumph left the Giants 7½ games behind Brooklyn but enabled them to complete their first invasion of the West with a creditable 6-3 showing. The Dodgers, meanwhile, came home with a 4-5 slate for their trip and a tidy little three-game losing streak.

In short, there was solid reason for believing today that the league has shaken itself down and that there'll be a race after all.

Mueller Raises Average

Don Mueller raised his league-leading batting average to .403 by collecting three of the Giants' nine hits and delivering in both their scoring innings. He singled and scored the Giants' first run in the fourth and doubled home the tying run in the fifth. A few moments later Willie Mays' sacrifice fly tallied Alvin Dark with the winning run.

Hank Aaron hit his eighth homer of the year for the Braves and Danny O'Connell contributed four hits to their 10-blow output. Milwaukee Manager Charley Grimm was ejected from the game by Umpire Augie Donatelli for arguing.

ing over a play at third base in the sixth inning.
The contest was the only action of the day or night in the majors but all the teams resume tonight.

Democrats Begin Fight To Override Eisenhower's Veto of Postal Pay Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic strategists launched an all-out campaign today to override President Eisenhower's veto of an average 8.8 per cent pay boost for 500,000 postal workers.

The Senate will vote on the veto after three hours of debate beginning Tuesday. The House will get a crack at the veto later if the Senate produces the necessary two-thirds vote to override.

Democrats began their own backstage nose-counting and Republicans claimed that a secret survey indicates the veto will be sustained. Both sides said privately, however, that the Senate showdown will be a close one.

President Eisenhower has used his veto power sparingly. He has not been overridden on any major piece of legislation, but he has never vetoed a bill of similar importance.

In his veto message, sent to the Senate Thursday, Mr. Eisenhower said the 8.8 per cent pay bill would boost the postal deficit and create new pay inequities in the postal service. The administration had wanted the increase held to 7.6 per cent.

Both Senate and House passed the bill by more than the two-thirds margin needed for overriding. But action to rebuke a President by passing a bill over his veto seldom attracts the support that goes to a bill on its merits.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) said he hoped that "we can enact the measure despite the President's objections" and pledged that certainly the Democrats will do everything they can to obtain that objective.

Veto "Shameful"

Chairman Olin D. Johnston (D-S.C.) of the Senate Post Office Committee called the veto "shameful."

But Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) and Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N.H.) who heads the policy committee, said they are certain the 8.8 per cent increase will be rejected on a vote to sustain the veto.

The National Association of Letter Carriers called the President's veto "discriminatory." Samuel Klein, president of the United National Association of Post Office Clerks, called it "a travesty on justice."

Gov't Reports Slight Decline In Living Costs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Automobile price cuts and the first decline in average rents since 1942 helped bring the cost of living down slightly last month, the government reported today.

The Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics reported that its consumer price index in mid-April was 1 of 1 per cent below March. It stood at 114.2 per cent of average 1947-49 prices. This was the first change in the index since December.

Acting BLS Commissioner Arnyess Joy Wickens said new and used auto prices dropped an average 4 per cent last month. The drop reflected cuts by dealers because of large stocks, she said, and not changes in manufacturers' list prices on new cars.

Rents declined slightly on the average, she said, indicating that the "long rise" in rents is ending. It was the first overall decrease in rents since they were rolled back under federal controls in 1942 and the first voluntary decline since 1938, she said.

Mrs. Wickens said the declines in rents and cars does not indicate any break in those markets. She said residential vacancy rates are not high.

The auto and rent declines, combined with slightly lower costs for clothing, coal, and house furnishings, more than offset an increase of 4 to 1 per cent in food prices and smaller rises in medical and personal care costs.

The food price rise was due mainly to a sharp rise in fruits and vegetables.
